The Shadowdwellers

Jacquelyn Frank

From Jacquelyn Frank, the New York Times bestselling author of The Nightwalkers series and a rising star in paranormal romance, comes the second book in The Shadowdwellers series—a stunning tale set in an unusual world of darkness.

Magnus is a man of contradictions—a spiritual leader in a warrior's body. To him, laws are for enforcing and visions must be followed—even if that means freeing a beautiful slave and making her his reluctant handmaiden. Betrayed once before, Magnus can barely bring himself to trust another woman. Yet Daenaira's fiery innocence is drawing them both into a reckless inferno of desire.

Daenaira grew up hearing tales of a fearsome priest who seemed more myth than reality. But Magnus is very real—every inch of him—and so is the treachery surrounding them. Beneath Sanctuary's calm surface, an enemy is scheming to unleash havoc on the Shadowdwellers, unless Magnus trusts in a union ordained by fate, and sealed by unending bliss.

advance praise for THE SHADOWDWELLERS series

“Suspenseful, romantic and richly drawn.” —Emma Holly on Rapture: The Shadowdwellers

“Enter a world of adventure and sensuality.” —Lora Leigh on Ecstasy: The Shadowdwellers

“Bestseller Frank's intensely emotional and sensual series... This romantic and strongly sexual story between complicated characters is made even richer by an intriguing secondary cast and efficient world-building...”

—Publisher's Weekly on Ecstasy: The Shadowdwellers

Jacquelyn Frank is currently living in North Carolina, and has been writing romantic fiction ever since she picked up her first teen romance at age 13. With four sisters and other family scattered up and down the Eastern Seaboard, and a history of living all across the USA herself, she still always finds ways to give a nod to her native New York in her work. A former Sign Language Interpreter and substitute teacher, she is a powerful advocate of reading and writing.

LOVING A LOST LORD

The Lost Lords

Mary Jo Putney

New York Times* bestselling author Mary Jo Putney returns to the genre that made her a household name with romance readers—historical romance—and delivers the first book in a dazzling new series about lifelong friends who are both noble and notorious.

Battered by the sea, Adam remembers nothing of his past, his ducal rank, nor of the shipwreck that almost claimed his life. However, he's delighted to hear that the golden-haired vision tending his wounds is his wife. Mariah's name and face may not be familiar, but her touch, her warmth, feel deliciously right.

When Mariah Clarke prayed for a way to deter a bullying suitor, she didn't imagine she'd find the answer washed ashore on a desolate beach. Convincing Adam that he is her husband is surprisingly easy. Resisting the temptation to act his wife, in every way, will prove anything but. And now a passion begun in fantasy has become dangerously real—and completely irresistible.

Erika Sifrit was once a high school basketball star and an honors student. Then she married Navy SEAL Benjamin Sifrit. Some say Erika was abused by “B.J.” Some say she pulled his strings. But by the time they reached Ocean City, MD, Erika was packing a gun in her Coach bag and was caught in the grips of a new American death ride.

In the sun-kissed, sea-swept resort town, a loving couple crossed paths with Erika and B.J. Sifrit. Shortly thereafter, Erika was wearing a bloody wedding ring on her necklace, while what remained of two dismembered vacationers was buried in a Delaware landfill, and a modern-day “Bonnie and Clyde” story was being written—a lurid tale of madness, money, sex, and murder.

MENTAL

Funny In The Head

Eddie Sarfaty

Perfect for fans of David Sedaris, Eddie Sarfaty translates his astute and acerbic standup into a hilarious essay collection that explores career lows, cheapskate exes, schizophrenic felines, and much, much more...

KEY SELLING POINTS

- Readers of humorous essay collections—especially fans of Augusten Burroughs, and David Rakoff—will relish this collection.

MARKETING PLANS

- National print media campaign
- National radio interview campaign
- Online feature on kensingtonbooks.com

Whether musing on his mother's European vacation, where she refuses to dine in any Parisian restaurant where the menu isn't in English, or revealing his grandmother's Machiavellian machinations to avoid the nursing home, Eddie Sarfaty excels at skewing his dazzlingly dysfunctional family.

He turns the spotlight on his own misadventures with equal glee, dissecting a disastrous summer in Portugal working on a knock-off production of The Phantom of the Opera and a misguided decision to jump a subway turnstile that ends in a night of hell and near electrocution. Candid and caustic, Eddie Sarfaty is a natural storyteller and this searingly funny collection proves that the rapier wit that works so well in person, is just as mighty delivered by pen.

"This is a book you will read in one sitting all the way to the end with a smile on your face and tears in your eyes." —Edmund White

"Sarfaty creates a world that echoes the poignant irony of David Sedaris and Augusten Burroughs but is, without question, entirely his own." —Patrick Moore, author of Tweaked

"[An] engaging and frequently hilarious collection."

—Bob Smith, author of Openly Bob and Selfish and Perverse

"[Sarfaty] writes beautifully, like an angel with a wise heart and a wonderfully foul mouth." —Christopher Bram

"Anyone who reads this book and doesn't fall in love with Eddie Sarfaty is an idiot."

—Michael Thomas Ford

Eddie Sarfaty has appeared on The Today Show, Nightline, and can currently be seen on Comedy Central's Premium Blend. He performs regularly at major comedy clubs in New York City, including Caroline's, Gotham Comedy Club, and Stand Up New York where he was a winner in their search for the funniest gay comic. He has performed at numerous comedy festivals and for two years he toured the country as one half of Two Consenting Adults, receiving fantastic receptions from both gay and straight audiences. He is currently working on several projects as a writer/performer for Logo.
