The Sisterhood—Myra, Annie, Kathryn, Alexis, Yoko, Nikki, and Isabelle—have risked everything in the name of justice, including their own freedom. Their most recent mission promised to reward them with the ultimate prize—a presidential pardon and a chance to leave their enforced exile. But as they've learned too many times before, life doesn't always turn out as planned.

Business titan Ruben Rumson has turned his attention to politics. By throwing the weight of his vast media empire behind one of the presidential candidates, Ruben hopes to gain influence over the highest office in the land. But his chosen candidate is Martine Connor's opponent, and if her bid for the White House fails, the Sisterhood can kiss their promised pardon goodbye. The only solution: travel to Washington and go toe-to-toe with the world's most powerful and ruthless media mogul. Armed with Annie's sizeable checkbook, Alexis's red bag of tricks, and Maggie's top-secret folder of dynamite information, the Ladies of Pinewood have a daring plan to pull off their most important job yet—and this time, failure is not an option.

ECSTASY: The Shadowdwellers

Jacquelyn Frank

From the New York Times bestselling author of The Nightwalkers series comes a stunning new paranormal romance set in an unusual world of darkness.

Among the Shadowdwellers, Trace holds power that some are willing to kill for. Without a stranger's aid, one rival would surely have succeeded, but Trace's brush with death is less surprising to him than his reaction to the beautiful, fragile human who heals him. By rights, Trace should hardly even register Ashla's existence within the realm of Shadowscape, but instead he is drawn to everything about her—her innocence, her courage, and her lush, sensual heat.

After a terrifying car crash, Ashla Townsend wakes up to find that the bustling New York she knew is now eerie and desolate. Just when she's convinced she's alone, Ashla is confronted by a dark warrior who draws her deeper into a world she never knew existed. The bond between Ashla and Trace is a mystery to both, but searching for answers will mean confronting long-hidden secrets, and uncovering a threat that could destroy everything Trace holds precious.

"Enter a world of adventure and sensuality." —Lora Leigh

Jacquelyn Frank is currently living in North Carolina, and has been writing romantic fiction ever since she picked up her first teen romance at age 13. With four sisters and other family scattered up and down the Eastern Seaboard, and a history of living all across the USA herself, she still always finds ways to give a nod to her native New York in her work.

RACHEL AND THE HIRED GUN

Elaine Levine

From a captivating new voice in romance comes a sexy, intriguing tale set amidst the rugged grandeur of the American frontier.

MARKETING PLANS

- Internet marketing on kensingtonbooks.com

When Rachel Douglas left her aunt's house in Virginia for the wilds of the Dakota Territory, she knew the journey would be long and arduous. But she didn't realize that she had been summoned west to be used as a pawn in a ranch war with her father's neighbor—or that her fierce, sudden attraction to Sager, her father's hired gun, would put her heart and her life in jeopardy.

Seducing Rachel and feeding a bitter feud between the two ranches was Sager's plan of vengeance against those who slaughtered his foster Shoshone family. Instead, Rachel's guileless mix of courage and vulnerability touches the conscience he thought he'd buried long ago, and draws them both into a passion without rules, without limits.

"Delightful!" —New York Times bestselling author, Jodi Thomas

Elaine Levine lived an adventurous childhood as the daughter of a marine biologist father and a scientific illustrator mother. In addition to trips all over Europe, she spent two years in Tunisia learning first-hand about different cultures, both ancient and modern. She now lives with her husband in a small town on the Plains just east of the Rocky Mountains in Colorado. By day, she writes custom business software applications. By night, she crafts emotional stories of love and redemption. You can learn more about her and her upcoming stories at www.elainelevine.com.

At first, the deaths seem random. A young Portland couple brutally murdered in a game gone awry...a Chicago woman who plummeted to her death from an office building...an aspiring screenwriter asphyxiated in his New York apartment. But the macabre souvenirs television reporter Sydney Jordan receives hint at a connection that is both personal and terrifying.

After events in her own life went wrong, Sydney fled Seattle with her teenage son. But instead of getting a fresh start, Sydney is plagued by strange occurrences. Someone is watching, someone who knows her intimately...someone who's just waiting to play the next move in a twisted game.

She is his chosen one. Every murder is a sign, and soon, Sydney will understand why each victim had to suffer—and why she's the next in line.

In Two Rivers, Vermont, Harper Montgomery is living a life overshadowed by grief and guilt. Since the death of his wife twelve years earlier, Harper has narrowed his world to working at the local railroad and raising his daughter, Shelly. Still wracked with sorrow over his loss and plagued by his role in a brutal, long-ago crime, he wants only to make amends for his past mistakes.

Then one fall day, a train derails in Two Rivers and Harper finds a chance at atonement. One of the survivors, a pregnant fifteen-year-old girl, needs a place to stay, and Harper offers to take her in. But soon he suspects that Maggie's appearance is not the simple case of happenstance it first appeared to be...

T. Greenwood is the author of Breathing Water, Nearer Than the Sky, and Undressing the Moon, the latter two both Book Sense 76 picks. She has received grants from the Sherwood Anderson Foundation, the Christopher Isherwood Foundation and, most recently, the National Endowment for the Arts. She teaches creative writing at The George Washington University in Washington, D.C. and at The Writer's Center in Bethesda, MD. She lives with her husband and their two daughters in the D.C. area, where she is also an aspiring fine arts photographer.

LITTLE BLACK GIRL LOST 3

Keith Lee Johnson

Following the blockbuster success of Little Black Girl Lost, and Little Black Girl Lost 2, Keith Lee Johnson takes readers back to 1950s New Orleans, into the world of betrayal, envy, lust, and murder, where everyone has ulterior motives.

KEY SELLING POINTS

- Little Black Girl Lost, Little Black Girl Lost 2, and Little Black Girl Lost 3 were all chosen as Alternate Selections of the Black Expressions Book Club.
- Keith Lee Johnson has a writing style similar to Bernice L. McFadden. His stories are a mixture of urban fiction and 1950s gangster drama.

MARKETING PLANS

- Paid advertising on AALBC
- Urban Books street promotion.
- Print advertising in Today's Black Woman and Vibe magazine

The past resurfaces in this third installment of the life and times of seventeen-year-old Johnnie Wise. Truth has its consequences, and Johnnie has a lot to answer for. The innocent girl we met in the first installment of this compelling series is gone; all that remains is the self-absorbed, self-righteous courtesan who is now complicit in three murders. She is surrounded by enemies who will stop at nothing to see that she pays for her past indiscretions. Two hundred and fifty thousand dollars of the money that Sharon Trudeau (Johnnie's stockbroker) stole is missing—the money Bubbles gave to Johnnie after killing Sharon in a Fort Lauderdale Hotel. The cops think Johnnie's involved, and they want answers. Someone has to answer for Sharon's murder. Will Johnnie land on her feet again, or has her luck finally run out?

“Keith Lee Johnson has written a suspenseful novel filled with rage, revenge, sex and even genuine love. The pictures he paints of Louisiana in the 1950s is fascinating and is something of a history lesson in itself.” —The RAWSISTAZ Reviewers

Keith Lee Johnson is a native of Toledo, Ohio. Keith began writing purely by accident when a literature professor challenged his ability to tell a credible story in class one day. He picked up a pen that very day, and has been writing ever since. After graduating from high school, Keith joined the United States Air Force and attained a Top Secret security clearance. He served his country in Texas, Mississippi, Nevada, California, and Turkey, among various other locations in his four years of service.

TABOO

Yoshe

When a sexy female corrections officer falls for a charming prisoner, she becomes embroiled in a mix of turmoil, drama, and investigations that turn her world upside down.

Within New York City's Riker's Island Prison there is a jail within a jail, known as The Bing. The Bing houses the most dangerous criminals of all—those who must be confined to their cells for 23 hours and 15 minutes a day. And in The Bing, Sierra Howell, a sexy female corrections officer from Brooklyn, genuinely falls for a charming and manipulative prisoner. In fact, Sierra falls so hard for this man that she soon finds herself becoming, in many ways, a prisoner of love.

Yoshe is a native of Brooklyn, New York, where she resides with her young son. Taboo is her debut novel.

LOOK BOTH WAYS

Joan Early

This powerful and poignant tale introduces a beautiful business executive who finds herself at odds with a crusading minister who later captures her heart.

Joan Early's love for books began at an early age, and so did her desire to write. She found time to pursue this dream after a twenty-year career in mortgage banking and mortgage law. Her first attempt was a short story entry for Ebony magazine's literary contest. Ideas tumbled freely and she completed the 517-page manuscript two years later, followed by a short story that became the winning entry in the same contest in 2003. Joan resides in Houston, and when not writing, she enjoys spending time with her husband, Dale, children Jeff and Ashley, and granddaughter, Devon.

I'M GONNA MAKE YOU LOVE ME

Gwyneth Bolton

When a woman finds herself falling for her childhood nemesis, the two must contend with their interfering relatives, as well as an unplanned pregnancy, in order to make their relationship work.

Gwyneth Bolton was born and raised in Peterson, New Jersey. When she was 12 years old, she became an avid reader of romance by sneaking her mother's stash of novels. In the nineties, she was introduced to African-American and multicultural romance novels, and her life hasn't been the same since. While she had always been a reader of romance, she had never been inspired to write them until the genre opened up to include other voices. She has a BA and an MA in Creative Writing and a Ph.D. in English. She teaches classes in writing and women's studies at the college level.
