AMERICA DREAMING How Youth Changed America in the 60's

By Laban Carrick Hill

Laban Hill, author of the National Book Award Finalist Harlem Stomp, is back with an in-depth exploration of America in the 1960s and the young people who built a new world around them and changed our society significantly.

Like Harlem Stomp, America Dreaming is an educational and visual look into a time of energy and influence. Covering subjects such as the civil rights movement, hippie culture, black nationalism, and the feminist movement, Hill paints a sprawling picture of life in the '60s and shows how teenagers were on the forefront of the societal changes that occurred during this grand decade.
