"[CROSS] is the kind of multilayered character that makes any plot twist seem believable."—People

"There are no faster reads than Patterson's Alex Cross books."—Denver Rocky Mountain News

When Alex Cross's long time friend is murdered, he is devastated. Alex quickly finds himself investigating the Nigerian underworld and connects the murder to a gang leader called the Tiger.

When the home of Alex Cross's long time friend is turned into the worst murder scene Alex has ever seen, he is devastated—and he knows he'll be chasing a horrible new killer. Alex and his girlfriend and sometimes partner, Brianna Stone, quickly find themselves investigating the deadly massacre in the Nigerian underworld of Washington D.C. They discover a strongly organized gang headed by a powerful, diabolical man—The Tiger. A man who has brought his own war to America's capital. When the Tiger disappears back to Africa, Alex can't let it go, and must bring justice to his friend's killer. And he knows he must go alone. But when Alex arrives in Nigeria, he discovers a world where justice is as foreign as he is.
