THE IMPERIAL CRUISE : A TRUE STORY OF EMPIRE AND WAR

James Bradley

Praise for JAMES BRADLEY:

"The best battle book I ever read..." —Stephen Amrbose, on Flags of Our Fathers

"...unforgettable...one of the most instructive and moving books on war and its aftermath that we are likely to see."—New York Times

From the author of the #1 bestselling Flags of our Fathers and Flyboys, a startling new look at the events in Asia that set the stage for WWII.

In 1905 President Teddy Roosevelt dispatched Secretary of War William Taft, his gun-toting daughter Alice and a gaggle of congressmen on a mission to Japan, the Philippines, China, and Korea. There, they would quietly forge a series of agreements that divided up Asia. At the time, Roosevelt was bully-confident about America's future on the continent. But these secret pacts lit the fuse that would—decades later—result in a number of devastating wars: WWII, the Korean War, and the communist revolution in China.

One hundred years later, James Bradley retraces that epic voyage and discovers the remarkable truth about America's vast imperial past—and its world-shaking consequences. Full of fascinating characters and brilliantly told, THE IMPERIAL CRUISE will forever reshape the way we understand history.
