LEANING INTO GOD WHEN LIFE IS PUSHING YOU AWAY

Robert A. Schuller with William
Kruidenier

New York Times bestselling author Robert A. Schuller shows readers how to jump-start an exciting connection with God and stay plugged into His love and presence.

Robert A. Schuller explores the various ways individuals lose or experience interference with their connection to God. He explains that emotions such as shame, regret, fear, and disappointment can stand in the way of the intimate association God wants with His children.

The good news is that when His people are struggling, God stays close. There are many ways to reestablish a dynamic connection with Him. Schuller calls these "Connection Corrections" and leads readers through identifying communication barriers and how to break them. Topics include:

- Turning wishes into reality when dreams are dashed
- Putting up sails, then praying for wind
- Finding forgiveness after fits of rebellion
- Claiming courage when derailed by anxiety
- Letting go in order to hold on

Each of these chapters delves into the reasons readers fail to connect with God, how to begin repairing the broken wires, and the life-altering benefits of restoring a positive, power-filled relationship with Him. Readers who feel adrift from God will no find that no barrier is too big to keep them from a close, loving relationship with Him.

ROBERT A. SCHULLER is the former senior pastor of the Crystal Cathedral. He has written twelve books, including the New York Times bestseller Walking in Your Own Shoes. His most recent book, coauthored with Dr. Douglas DiSiena, is entitled Possibility Living.
