

The definitive chronicle of the turbulent life of the "King of Pop"

MICHAEL JACKSON: THE MAGIC, THE MADNESS, THE WHOLE STORY, 1958-2009, which has not been available in the United States for over a decade, has been fully updated throughout to reflect J. Randy Taraborrelli's extensive continuous research since the original publication in 1991. The new book will also include the most up-to-date information of the singer's life including his legal battles and the most recent developments surrounding his death and the aftermath.

MICHAEL JACKSON: THE MAGIC, THE MADNESS, THE WHOLE STORY, 1958-2009 is the only New York Times bestseller about Jackson. First published in 1991, the book was a runaway success, ultimately selling more than 250,000 copies in six printings. Taraborrelli updated the book for the foreign marketplace four years ago. It has sold more than 500,000 copies around the world and is considered the foremost—and only—credible Michael Jackson biography.

"I've known Michael since he was 10 years old and interviewed him at every milestone since then. I've always worked to set the record straight—popular or not—on his life and career. This is a tribute to that extraordinary life."

—J. Randy Taraborrelli
