HOWELL CONANT

Life: Remembering Grace Editors of Life Magazine, Howell Conant

This magical book is the result of a 27-year collaboration between a renown photographer and a legendary woman. Grace Kelly was Howell Conant's greatest subject, and he took hundreds of pictures of her in New York City, Jamaica, Hollywood, and Monaco. He was also Grace's true friend and confidante. Their friendship lives forever in these pictures.

In 1955, when Conant first met Grace Kelly on a modeling assignment, the two found instant rapport. Until her untimely death in 1982, Conant was always present in Grace's life, making this collection the most intimate look at this astonishing woman. Many of the sublime images in this book appeared in the pages of LIFE, Look, Paris Match, Collier's and other world-renown magazines.

Grace has been gone for two decades now, but she lives on in these pictures.

HOWELL CONANT was a born photographer. During WWII, he was one of the first chosen for Admiral Chester Nimitz's renown Navy photographic unit. Not only was he responsible for award-winning commercial photographs for companies such as Ford, Revlon, and Kodak, but he also photographed cover stories for LIFE, Paris Match, and other major international magazines. He passed away in 1999 at the age of 83.
