

TIME

Ted Kennedy

A Tribute

FROM THE EDITORS OF TIME MAGAZINE

He is perhaps the greatest Senator in the history of his country, and the last of the remarkable generation of Kennedy men who captured the popular imagination and changed the world. Though his political aspirations hit a ceiling after the tragedy at Chappaquiddick, Teddy Kennedy remained an indomitable force in the Senate, leading in the heated battles for civil rights, universal health care and other critical issues. In this special book, TIME will chronicle Kennedy's remarkable life, from the pressures of growing up as the youngest Kennedy brother, to his political rise after the deaths of brothers John and Robert, to his years as the Lion of the Senate. The book will feature many unseen photographs of Kennedy, including a large number taken during the Camelot era of the 1950s and 1960s.
