DON'T BLINK

James Patterson & Howard Roughan

New York's most murderous crime families are at war in the best mob novel since The Godfather.

After narrowly escaping Janjaweed attacks on assignment in the Sudan, reporter Nick Daniels is immediately thrown back into the middle of a bitter conflict. This clash doesn't take place on the wild plains, but in New York's most luxurious and exclusive venues.

While conducting a once-in-a-lifetime interview with a legend baseball bad-boy, Nick witnesses the very public, very gruesome murder of an infamous mob boss--and accidentally captures a key piece of evidence. Ensnared in the city's most high-profile crime in years, Nick investigates what happened for a story of his own. As he uncovers more about the brutal killing, he receives several warnings to back off--or die.

With the pacing and narrative force of a modern day Godfather, Don't Blink is the new pinnacle of bestselling suspense and unstoppable action from "America's #1 storyteller" (Forbes).
