GOD NEVER BLINKS : 50 LESSONS FOR LIFE'S LITTLE DETOURS

Regina Brett

"Regina Brett is a gifted observer of the experiences that shape who we are, and her lessons unfold with buoyancy, humor and a courageous honesty. She has given us a beautifully written roadmap for life."— Jefferey Zaslow, coauthor of The Last Lecture

Already an internet phenomenon, these wise and insightful lessons and stories by popular newspaper columnist and Pulitzer Prize finalist Regina Brett are destined to become the inspirational book of the year.

When Regina Brett turned 50, she wrote a column on the 50 lessons life had taught her. In it, she reflected on all she had learned through becoming a single parent, looking for love in all the wrong places, working on her relationship with God, battling cancer and making peace with a difficult childhood. It became one of the most popular columns ever published in the newspaper, and since then the 50 lessons have been e-mailed to literally hundreds of thousands of people—nationally and internationally—and have taken on a life of their own.

In this book, Brett takes the 50 lessons and expounds on them in essays that are deeply personal yet will strike a chord with anyone who has ever gone through tough times—and haven't we all?
