THE BID JAX

"Jacquelyn Frank knows how to write an intense, rip-roaring good read!"—Cathy Maxwell

As JAX, Jacquelyn Frank continues her bestselling streak with this highly inventive erotic novel, featuring a paranormal setting and exotic characters!

A slave auction is being held. The man up for sale's "attributes" are fully showcased by the cruel auctioneer, and he becomes the subject of an intense bidding war between two factions. He is finally sold for an exorbitant price to Najir, himself a slave, and the representative of the Master of the House of Drakoulous. When Najir returns home and tells his beloved Master, who is actually a woman named Hanna, about the slave they just purchased, she is thrilled—though not for the obvious reason of his stunning physical beauty. But when Vejhon regains consciousness to find himself in a luxurious room in chains, he is furious, and determined not to ever be anyone's slave. Thus begins a battle of wills, of need, and of love, as Hanna slowly reveals her secrets to Vejhon, gains his trust, and convinces him that he has more power than she in the relationship as he alone has the ability to save her and her family.
