"A perfect summer cocktail of sex, sun and scandal."—Kirkus

A captivating novel of summer and surprises from New York Times bestselling author Elin Hilderbrand in international C-Format. Birdie Cousins has planned a getaway with her daughter Chess on rustic, charming Tuckernuck Island off the coast of Nantucket, a chance to bond before Chess's upcoming marriage. Birdie's been through a difficult divorce herself, so she knows the big commitment that marriage entails. She's only recently dared to tiptoe back into the waters of romance.

Then Chess abruptly breaks off the wedding and her fiancé shockingly dies in a rock climbing accident, leaving Chess feeling guilty and deeply depressed. Birdie circles the wagons, convincing her younger daughter Tate, and her own sister India to join them on Tuckernuck for the month of July. Secrets and intrigue soon make their way to the surface, as Elin Hilderbrand once again weaves a masterful story of summer suspense.
