10TH ANNIVERSARY

James Patterson, Maxine Paetro

"I can't believe how good Patterson is, whether he's doing a Washington police yarn or traveling a different road with a female narrator. He is always on the mark. I have never begun a Patterson book and been able to put it down."— Larry King

Detective Lindsay Boxer has finally married the love of her life. But the wedding becomes a distant memory when she is called to investigate a horrendous crime: a teenage girl left for dead and her missing newborn baby. Boxer and her partner Rich Conklin soon discover not only that the criminals left no evidence, but that the victims may be hiding a secret as well.

Meanwhile, Cindy interviews a young woman who thinks that she has been raped. There's only one problem—she doesn't remember anything about the assault or her attacker. Cindy is certain that a criminal is on the loose and she'll do anything to stop him from targeting another victim.

Lindsay discovers evidence that could save a woman who has been accused of killing her husband. The only problem: Yuki is prosecuting the case, and her career rests on a guilty conviction. Should Lindsay betray her closest friend for justice, or should she trust Yuki's judgment? With the white-hot speed and unquenchable action that only James Patterson delivers, 10TH ANNIVERSARY is the Women's Murder Club at their most thrilling best.
