THE CHRISTMAS WEDDING JAMES PATTERSON AND RICHARD DiLALLO

The tree is decorated, the cookies are baked, and the packages are wrapped, but the biggest surprise this Christmas is Gabrielle Smith's wedding.

Widowed five years ago, her children have drifted away from her, but this year she is determined to bring everyone home. Beth, the oldest, is trapped in a miserable marriage in Myrtle Beach, Emily is too busy at her law firm New York to even see her husband, Seth is madly in love with his girlfriend of six years, and Lizzie helplessly watches as her husband undergoes daily chemotherapy treatments. They haven't all been together since their father's death, but Gabrielle's mysterious announcement and refusal to tell them who she is marrying, finally brings them together for the holidays. Always generous, Gabrielle has one more gift, and it just might change all their lives forever.

"Patterson has hit a home run."
