Billie Letts

"A heartbreaking tale about love, loss and survival that will stick with the reader long after the last page is turned." —Publishers Weekly (Starred Review)

#1 New York Times bestselling author Billie Letts tells an unforgettable story of two abandoned children desperately searching for people to call family and a place to call home, now available in trade paperback.

Lutie McFee's history has taught her to avoid attachments... to people, to places, and to almost everything. With her mother long dead and her father long gone to find his fortune in Las Vegas, 15-year-old Lutie lives in the god-forsaken town of Spearfish with her twelve-year-old brother, Fate, and Floy Satterfield, the 300-pound ex-girlfriend of her father. As if their life is not dismal enough, one day while shopping, Floy keels over and the two motherless kids are suddenly faced with the choice of becoming wards of the state or hightailing it out of town in Floy's old Pontiac. Choosing the latter, they head off to Las Vegas in search of a father who has no known address, no phone number and, clearly, no interest in the kids he left behind. MADE IN THE U.S.A. is the alternately heartbreaking and life-affirming story of two gutsy children who must discover how cruel, unfair and frightening the world is before they come to a place they can finally call home.
