THE PORNOGRAPHY OF POWER

Robert Scheer

"This indictment of the military-industrial complex explains why any president committed to preserving our Republic must end a policy of permanent war. It is also a reminder, as is Jonathan Schell's Seventh Decade: The New Shape of Nuclear Danger, of the insanity of our nuclear strategy and the arrogance of our hypermilitarized foreign policy." —The New York Times Review of Books

"Pugnacious . . . rigorously researched . . . Scheer's prose is as clear as his evidence; readers will be galvanized by his incendiary account." —Publishers Weekly (Starred Review)

A wise and blistering attack on the Pentagon and all those who profit from wars and defense spending, by one of America's greatest progressive journalists.

Robert Scheer's work has been praised by Gore Vidal, Susan Sontag, and Joan Didion, who deems him "one of the best reporters of our time." Now, Scheer brings a lifetime of wisdom and experience to one of the most overlooked and dangerous issues of our time—the destructive influence of America's military-industrial complex. Scheer examines the expansion of American military presence throughout the world, its insane nuclear strategy, the immorality of corporations profiting in Iraq, and the arrogance of our foreign policy.
